THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Welcome to worship today. Please let us know how we can be of service to you.

SENTENCE This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.
Mathew 17.5

PROCESSIONAL HYMN 560 God, Whose Almighty Word

God, Whose Almighty Word

1. God, whose almighty word Chaos and darkness heard And took their flight: Hear us, we humble pray, And where the Gospel day Sheds not its glorious ray, Let there be light!

2. Lord, who once came to bring, On your redeeming wing, Healing and sight, Health to the sick in mind, Sight to the inly blind: Oh, now to humankind Let there be light!

3. Spirit of truth and love, Life giving, holy dove, Speed forth your flight; Move on the water's face, Bearing the lamp of grace, And in earth's darkest place Let there be light!

4. Holy and blessed three, Glorious Trinity, Wisdom, love, might! Boundless as ocean's tide, Rolling in fullest pride, Through the earth, far and wide, Let there be light!

WELCOME

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

All And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray. Almighty God,
People to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA – Hymn 702

All

Glory to God, in the highest and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, Almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give thanks,
We praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
receive our prayer
For you alone are the Holy One.
You alone are the Lord.
You alone are the most high, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
Glory to God, in the highest, and peace to his people on earth!

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant

Almighty God, on the holy mount you revealed to chosen witnesses your well-beloved Son, wonderfully transfigured: mercifully deliver us from the darkness of this world, and change us into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING

Reader

A reading from the Book of Exodus (34:29-35)

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM (99)

The Lord is king; let the people tremble; he is enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth shake.

The Lord is great in Zion; he is high above all peoples.

Let them confess his name, which is great and awesome; he is the Holy One.

"O mighty King, lover of justice, you have established equity; you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."

Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God and fall down before his footstool; he is the Holy One.

Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among those who call upon his name, they called upon the Lord, and he answered them.

He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.

"O Lord our God, you answered them indeed; you were a God who forgave them, yet punished them for their evil deeds."

Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God and worship him upon his holy hill; for the Lord our God is the Holy One.

Lord our God, ruler of the universe, you love what is right. Lead us in your righteousness, that we may live to praise you, through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SECOND READING

Reader A reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians (3:12—4:2)
Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit. Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practise cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE GOSPEL

GOSPEL HYMN 619 Fairest Lord Jesus (Verses 1-3)

Fairest Lord Jesus! Ruler of all nature! O Thou of God and man the Son! Thee will I cherish, Thee will I honor, Thou, my soul's glory, joy, and crown!

Fair are the meadows Fairer still the woodlands, Robed in the blooming garb of spring; Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer, Who makes the woeful heart to sing!

Fair is the sunshine, Fairer still the moonlight, And all the twinkling starry host; Jesus shines brighter, Jesus shines purer, Than all the angels heav'n can boast!

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (9:28-36)

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah " - not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

Celebrant The gospel of Christ.

All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

DEVOTIONAL HYMN (Verse 4 of the Hymn)

4 All fairest beauty, Heavenly and earthly, Wondrously, Jesus, is found in Thee;
None can be nearer, Fairer, or dearer, Than Thou my Savior art to me.

THE HOMILY

The Rev. Alvarado Adderley

A brief silence for reflection. Father Adderley sings to us "He touched Me"

THE APOSTLES' CREED

Celebrant Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE COMMUNITY

Thanksgiving, Intercessions and Petitions

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

Celebrant Most merciful God,

All

We confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EXCHANGE OF THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

OFFERTORY HYMN 166 We Have Come at Christ's Own Bidding

1 We have come at Christ's own bidding to this high and holy place, where we wait with hope and longing for some token of God's grace. Here we pray for new assurance that our faith is not in vain, searching like those first disciples for a sign both clear and plain.

2 Light breaks through our clouds and shadows, splendour bathes the flesh joined Word, Moses and Elijah marvel as the heavenly voice is heard. Eyes and hearts behold with wonder how the Law and Prophets meet: Christ with garments drenched in brightness, stands transfigured and complete.

3 Strengthened by this glimpse of glory, fearful lest our faith decline, we, like Peter, find it tempting to remain and build a shrine. But true worship gives us courage to proclaim what we profess, that our daily lives may prove us people of God we bless.

(To make it easier for your givings we have now set up etransfers. To make an etransfer please send to: etranferStjamesfenelon@bellnet.ca. You should set up the security answer as Church.)

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Celebrant Let us pray. Holy God, receive all we offer you this day, and bring us to that radiant glory which we see in the transfigured face of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER # 3

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; you have revealed your eternal plan of salvation, and have shown your Son Jesus Christ to be the light of all peoples. Therefore with angels and archangels we raise our voices in joyful praise to proclaim the glory of your name.

All Hymn 719
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus Your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the World. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

All Therefore, Father, according to his command, we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Celebrant and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Silence

Celebrant

All

And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are bold to sing,
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the pow'r and the glory are yours, now and for ever.

Silence

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All We, being many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

Celebrant The gifts of God, for the people of God.

All Thanks be to God.

AGNUS DEI

Hymn 745

All Lamb of God you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
(X2)
Lamb of God you take away the sins of the world. Grant us peace.
Grant us peace.

645 Come Down, O Love Divine

1 Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine, and visit it with thine own ardour glowing; O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear, and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

2 O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes in its heat consuming; and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight, and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

3 And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long, shall far outpass the power of human telling; for none can guess its grace, till Love create a place wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Celebrant Let us pray. Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ. May we who are partakers of his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. We ask this in his name. Amen.

Celebrant Glory to God,

All whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

OUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer, we pray for the Anglican Church of Kenya, and for The Rt. Rev. John Organ, Bishop, and the clergy and people of the Diocese of Western Newfoundland.

In our Diocese we pray for BLACC Anglicans.

In our Outreach and Advocacy Cycle, we pray for the Church of the Nativity, Malvern; for the Church of Our Saviour, Don Mills; and for the Parish of Penetanguishene and Wabaushene.

In our parish, we pray for Eric and Geri Cornish, and for June Rose.

Update on Daniel Liebovitch: Daniel has been diagnosed with Autoimmune Hepatitis Type 1 and will be on medication, perhaps for the rest of his life. Please keep Daniel and the Liebovitch family in your prayers.

Memo from the Bishop's Office

We are approaching Ash Wednesday, Lent and Holy Week, a liturgically rich season in the Church. Over the past two years, the pandemic has shaped some of our worship practices, but now as our knowledge of the COVID-19 virus and how it is transmitted has increased, it is appropriate to adapt our protocols. The College of Bishops, in consultation with the wider Church and the Bishop's Committee on Healing Ministries, offers these liturgical guidelines for Lent 2022.

Masks must be worn at all times, for all of these actions.

Imposition of Ashes

- Ashes may be imposed on the forehead, with cotton balls, Q-tips or with the thumb. The minister need not sanitize their hands between each person.
- As with the distribution of holy communion, physical distancing must be maintained as people come forward to receive the imposition of ashes.
- It is recommended that the minister speak the words of imposition ("Remember that you are but dust...") from a physical distance of two metres, before moving forward to touch the person.
- Alternatively, those worshippers who prefer not to be touched should have the option of coming forward with crossed arms (or another gesture) to indicate that they would prefer to be sprinkled with ashes, a historic practice.
- No one should feel obliged to impose, or to receive, ashes if they are not comfortable doing so.

Foot-Washing

- If it is the custom of your parish to wash feet (or hands) at Maundy Thursday liturgies, this practice may resume.
- As with the distribution of holy communion, physical distancing must be maintained as people come forward for the foot-washing.
- Chairs should be adequately spaced out to maintain physical distancing.
- Ideally, each person being washed should bring, or be provided with, their own towel.
- No one should feel obliged to wash feet, or have their feet washed, if they are not comfortable doing so.

JOINT ANNOUNCEMENTS:

A reminder to everyone to please return palms branches from last year on Sunday in preparation for making the ashes to be used on Ash Wednesday.
Thanks.

Father Adderley is requesting that if you or anybody you know is at home or in Long Term Care or any other facility whether they are of the Parish or not and wish to either receive Communion or just to talk can email him personally or the parish office and request a visit. Father Adderley is doubled vaccinated and if you are comfortable with a visit please let us know.

Don't forget the food banks: Given the economic slowdown, use of the food banks has increased in our communities.
